During Mexican President Felipe Calderons May, 2010 visit to the U. S. , former private detective Jake Card watches the Arizona marches and protests on TV and debates immigration, with a pair of violent and racist illegal immigrants who have kidnapped him with the help of a sexy and beautiful, but treacherous, American girl he once knew as Jackie the Stripper. Projecting the last twenty years on into the future, Card sees his country turning into another Mexico and doesnt like it. Those who support the illegal invasion will say this book is xenophobic. Those who would like to turn America into Sodomerica will say its homophobic. Those who would like to breed the white race out of existence will say its racist. But even those who hate it, will want to read it before they burn it. If he doesnt get deported by those whom he would like to deport, Jake Card will soon return in his detective series first big adventure -- The Great American Giveaway Rush. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
