Storm Rising

By Gary Naiman

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 300 pages. IT HAS ALREADY BEGUN . . . It is 2020 -- The United States is torn by political dissension, middle class decay, civil unrest, and endless overseas wars. The nations frustrated citizens cry out for a new direction -- and she has come. Storm Rising follows a reporter from Irans bloody battlefield to his unexpected alliance with Claire Minton, Americas fiery third party presidential candidate, a war hero who has captured the nations heart and mind. With victory in Mintons grasp from the reporters smuggled video of a battlefield mutiny, the reporter flees for his life after uncovering a plot resembling The Manchurian Candidate, except this time its not communists we must fear, but Americas new third party, the Heartlanders. The seeds of revolution are sown. -- Claire Minton Gary Naiman has written ten novels. His background includes twenty years at Paramount Pictures where he worked with a team of creative and technical professionals developing the first CGI and Virtual Reality software. One of his books is being considered for a motion picture. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
