Another sends from thirty to fifty carloads each year to the Pacific coast. Thus it may readily be seen that the agricultural and mechanical interests of Wayne county are beginning to receive that public consideration their importance demands. The farmers of the county are beginning to appreciate the noble and honorable calling in which they are engaged, and are making the science of agriculture their study, getting out of the old ruts and preparing themselves to answer the question, How am I to raise the most grain on the (east ground? Joseph C. Ratliff, President. WELLS COUNTY. The Wells County Agricultural Society held their Seventeenth Annual Fair on the grounds usually occupied by the society, near Bluffton, on September 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th. We were under the impression during the summer, that we would have a...
