It was about this time that Master Lincoln was elected president and the war got started. The Young Master had a grey uniform. He told me he was going to be in the Cavalry. I was worried bout losing the cabin he had fixed up for me, if I was free and had to leave. But he said he had talked to the women folk at the big house. I could keep the cabin and the two girls would have help later. And Mama told me if we was free, we was going to be rich. That made me feel better!
