----- Chapter 17 of the Agreement requires Chile to ratify or accede to several international IPR agreements, including the International Convention for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants (UPOV 1991), the Trademark Law Treaty, the Brussels Convention relating to the Distribution of Program-Carrying Satellite Signals, and the Patent Cooperation Treaty. The FTA also enhances enforcement of intellectual property rights. Non- discrimination obligations apply to all types of intellectual property. The FTA ensures government involvement in resolving disputes between trademarks and Internet domain names (important to prevent cyber-squatting of trademarked domain names). It also applies the principle of first-in-time, first-in-right to trademarks and geographical indicators (place-names) applied to products. The Agreement streamlines the trademark filing process by allowing applicants to use their own national patenttrademark offices for filing trademark applications. The FTA ensures that only authors, composers, and other copyright owners have the right the make their works available online. Copyright owners maintain rights to...
