The great thing about the Bible is that it's not just a book of stories, it's a book of history, and because it's history, we get all the stories, the good ones, the bad ones, and the ugly ones all rolled into one. This devotion focuses on the main characters in the stories of the Old Testament, but not just the good ones, but also the bad ones and even the ugly ones. This may sound weird but the important thing to remember is that just like we can learn from the good, bad and ugly people and stories of the Bible, because of God's grace and redemption we find in Jesus Christ, we can learn, and grow from the good, bad, and ugly moments and experiences in our own lives. The bottom line is that, we (much like the stories you'll read about in this devotional), have been created good, but choose to do bad things, which made us ugly. The good news is, that we can be made good once again through the redemption of Jesus Christ. So spend some time each day reading all about what God can and has done through the Good, the Bad, and the Ugly of the Bible.
